Buescher State Park April 25th - 28th

It was another fun-filled weekend for 21 Townies complete with a Cinco De Mayo party. Buescher is a peaceful park with large, beautiful tent sites. The group was greeted by a swarm of wooly caterpillars, a very rare occurrence for the springtime. After some research, it was determined they are Saltmarsh caterpillars and will become Tiger Moths. Fifteen of us went on a kayak trip down the Colorado River. Barb Cutter led us and gave us instruction on proper paddling technique and kept us safe on the river. Donna Morgan assisted by making sure no paddler was left behind. It was a little windy, but all enjoyed the paddle. We saw more caterpillars and several turtles, a waterfall and some beautiful vines hanging over the river. A group of hikers went to see the Big Tree the first night and reflect. Then we explored a new park run by the Lower Colorado River Authority in Bastrop and took a 5 mile hike. The meal teams delivered again with some flavorful dishes, and we were treated to a special Cinco De Mayo celebration. Margaritas were consumed and Barb Cutter taught us the song De Colores. Another enjoyable Town outing.

Port Aransas 2024

It was another fun week at the beach in Port Aransas. The activities consisted of relaxing on the beach, a walk on the jetty and a visit to the bird sanctuary. The jetty is a popular place to see the cargo ships come in and out of the bay. There is also ample wildlife viewing: pelicans, herons, dolphins are just a few. Those who visited the bird sanctuary were rewarded with a rare treat, a viewing of a flamingo. It is believed that the flamingo was forced out of Florida by a hurricane. The group took time to celebrate Carol Burris becoming a grandmother and Barb Minyard turning 80. Both are well deserved honors. Karen T, Karen K, and Allison went out on a fishing boat to catch our dinner but unfortunately, they were rained out. They were allowed to go out again the next day and caught a couple of nice fish. Everyone enjoyed the calm relaxing week.
